How to reach Venice by train

Venice has rail connections with every major city in Italy and the rest of Europe. The main train station (Venezia Santa Lucia) is located next to the Grand Canal in the northwest corner of the city. Some trains stop at Venezia- Mestre on the mainland: to get from Venezia- Mestre to Santa Lucia, or vice versa (a 10-minute trip) you can take any train. However, please be aware that there is an extra charge for travelling on Intercity and Eurocity trains that should be paid prior to departure.

How to reach Venice by car

Follow the sign to Venice. Once you arrive in Mestre, drive to the Ponte della Libertà – a long straight road in the Lagoon, linking Venice to the mainland. In Venice you will arrive at Piazzale Roma. Here you have to leave your car and proceed by feet or by boat. There are three parking areas at Piazzale Roma: Autorimessa Comunale, Garage S. Marco and the open air car park S. Andrea. Other car parks are at Tronchetto, with fast connection to Piazzale Roma by People Mover

Transportation within Venice

The public transportation in Venice is served by “vaporetto” boats. The company providing the service is ACTV. In the website you can find information about vaporetto lines and timetables. Single fare: € 7,00/ ticket valid for 1 hour.
